

PROJECT ENLIGHTEN

November 2007

“All human kind shall have the right to a life of respect and dignity.”

Productive November!

By Asad Rahman & Olivia Lorge

Your support has been tremendous as we open a new chapter in our journey called Project Enlighten.

We opened our new website, projectenlighten.org on 11/14. This could not have been possible without the commitment and patience of our web designer Melani McKim-King. Thank you!

We left for Seattle soon after to purchase several refurbished laptops from Interconnection. Thanks to your much cherished donations we were able to make this much needed purchase. Two laptops will go to the “Education Center” at the Land Mine Museum and one will go to Togh who is the School Director at The Voluntary Development Poverty Children’s School.

On our return drive from Seattle we stopped in Portland to meet with two of our esteemed Team Advisors, Chann Noun plus Chanly Bob and his wife Sophon. We discussed many positive aspects of our future endeavors and what needed to be focused on during this trip. It is always inspiring and humbling working along side these two humanitarians!

On the media front we have to thank Brad Smith from the Siskiyou Daily News for a wonderful front page article in our local newspaper. Your continued kindness is humbling! I will share this wonderful article in next months newsletter.

"The mind is not a vessel to be filled but a fire to be kindled".

On behalf of our Board of Directors and Advisory Team we MUST thank everyone for their continued support of this grassroots program. 100% of all money raised is going to work where it is needed most, supporting the children and the foundation of education.

We urgently need your continued donations to see these education based programs come to fruition. Please help support these amazing children, pass our website on to your friends and family, if you are willing to host a fund raiser or have a unique idea please send us an email, we would love to hear from you!

Our next newsletter in December will come from Cambodia as Asad is leaving 12/06. Stay up to date on all happens via our Blog on our website.

On behalf of our TEAM we thank you for your continued support and graciousness!

Sincerely,
Asad Rahman & Olivia Lorge
